ABDEL SAÏD FINDS THE LEAD

AT HH SHARJAH RULER CUP

An FEI Jumping World Cup Arab League Event

ABDEL SAÏD RIDING QUAKER BRIMBELLES Z, STOLE THE SPOT-LIGHT AT THE SHARJAH EQUESTRIAN & RACING CLUB IN THE UAE, BY WINNING THE CSI5*-W 1.55M HH SHARJAH RULER CUP. SAÏD OUTCLASSED A COMPETITIVE FIELD OF FORTY PARTICI-PANTS AFTER TWO CLEAR ROUNDS, NAVIGATING THE SECOND WITH PRECISION TO STOP THE CLOCK IN 50.18 SECONDS.

This win marks Saïd's second major success of the 2025/2026 Arab League season, following his impressive performance in December 2025 when he claimed the CSI3*-W title in Al Ain.

The podium in Sharjah took on a distinctly international flavour, though Saïd's nearest rivals couldn't quite match his pace. Germany's Sophie Hinners claimed the runner-up spot, guiding Iron Dames Kaleni Jo through the course in 51.62 seconds, while her compatriot René Tebbel secured third place riding Paulus-L with a steady clear in 52.81. Ireland's Shane Breen and Sweden's Antonia Pettersson Häggström followed closely behind to round out the top five.

Earlier, Irish fortunes were even brighter where Trevor Breen won the CSI5*-W 1.50m Presented by UAEERF class riding Konrad Obolensky. In a strong showing for the Irish contingent, Michael Pender won second place, leaving Germany's David Will to settle for third.
