FEI SECRETARY GENERAL ELECTED PRESIDENT OF NEW PARALYMPIC ASSOCIATION

Via FEI:

Sabrina Ibáñez (SUI), Secretary General of the Fédération Equestre Internationale (FEI), has been elected as President of the newly-founded Association of Paralympic Sports Organisations (APSO). The vote took place at the founding General Assembly of the Association in Abu Dhabi (UAE) today.

The FEI Secretary General was standing for election alongside Maureen Orchard (CAN), former President and now Secretary General of the International Wheelchair Basketball Federation (IWBF), with four votes in favor of Mrs Orchard and 12 votes for Mrs Ibáñez.

“I am truly honored to have been elected as President of the new Association of Para Sports Organizations, which has such an important role to play”, the newly-elected APSO President Sabrina Ibáñez said today. “It is our function as governing bodies to safeguard the rights of our Para-athletes and I am fully committed to guaranteeing a sound governance framework that will protect these athletes and encourage the future growth of Paralympic sport worldwide.”

EDWINA TOPS-ALEXANDER BACK ON TRACK

One of show jumping's best known couple "Edwina Tops-Alexander" the two times overall champion of the Longines Global Champions Tour and "Jan Tops" the extraordinary Olympic rider just welcomed a new baby girl on the 30th of July in Monaco.

Edwina has announced in march that she and Jan tops are expecting a baby and that she will take a rest from riding for a while, but now as for the news she announced that she is back riding. Edwina just participated in the Swiss five-star event to mark her first participation since the Saut Hermes in Paris.

USA ON TOP WITH KENT FARRINGTON TOPPING THE WORLD RANKING FOR A FIFTH CONSECUTIVE MONTH

Kent Farrington is again on top of the Longines show jumping ranking for his fifth consecutive month where he is the only rider to keep his position in the top five.

Kent Farrington is also very far in terms of points from his contender Lorenzo de Luca, where Kent is topping Lorenzo with a difference of 260 points.

Lorenzo is up to rank two after being in rank four. Scott Brash dashes up the ranking from rank 10 to rank five after his staggering round in Longines Global Champions tour London with Hello Forever that lead him to win the Grand prix. We also have the biggest move Harrie Smolders who shot up from rank 16 to rank 6 a stunning 10 place difference.

FEI PRESIDENT INGMAR DE VOS ELECTED AS IOC MEMBER

Via FEI:

Ingmar De Vos, President of the Fédération Equestre Internationale (FEI) since 2014, was elected as a Member of the International Olympic Committee (IOC) during the IOC Session in Lima (PER). Ingmar De Vos received 70 out of 78 valid votes.

“It is a really great honor for me personally, and for the FEI, to be elected as an IOC Member. I see this as clear recognition of the way the FEI has embraced and continues to embrace Olympic Agenda 2020, our clear focus on sport format changes for Tokyo 2020 and our good governance. I would like to thank the IOC Members for their belief in me and will be honoured to serve the Olympic Movement.”

SWEDISH CAPITAL JOINS WORLD'S PREMIER SHOW JUMPING CIRCUIT IN 2019

Via LGT:

Sweden will be a new destination on the Longines Global Champions Tour and Global Champions League in 2019 adding another spectacular capital city to the international circuit.

The world's top riders will compete in Stockholm as the championship series, offering the highest prize money in the sport, plays out in Scandinavia for the very first time. The stunning city, made up of a series of islands on the shores of the Baltic Sea in south-eastern Sweden, will be another eye-catching showcase for world class equestrian sport.

Jan Tops, President of Longines Global Champions Tour and Co-Founder Global Champions League, said: "We are delighted to announce the addition of Sweden's capital city Stockholm to our global circuit for 2019. Sweden is a great horse nation and we are looking forward to working with our partners in Sweden and the City of Stockholm to deliver a truly world class event. We are fortunate to have a number of cities keen to join our calendar and it is important in this modern sports landscape to take show jumping to city centres to give new fans an opportunity to see this fantastic sport."
